UNCERTAINTY
WILL ALWAYS
EXIST

don't know

always remember to give a shit about the stranger that's next to you, because you never know how important
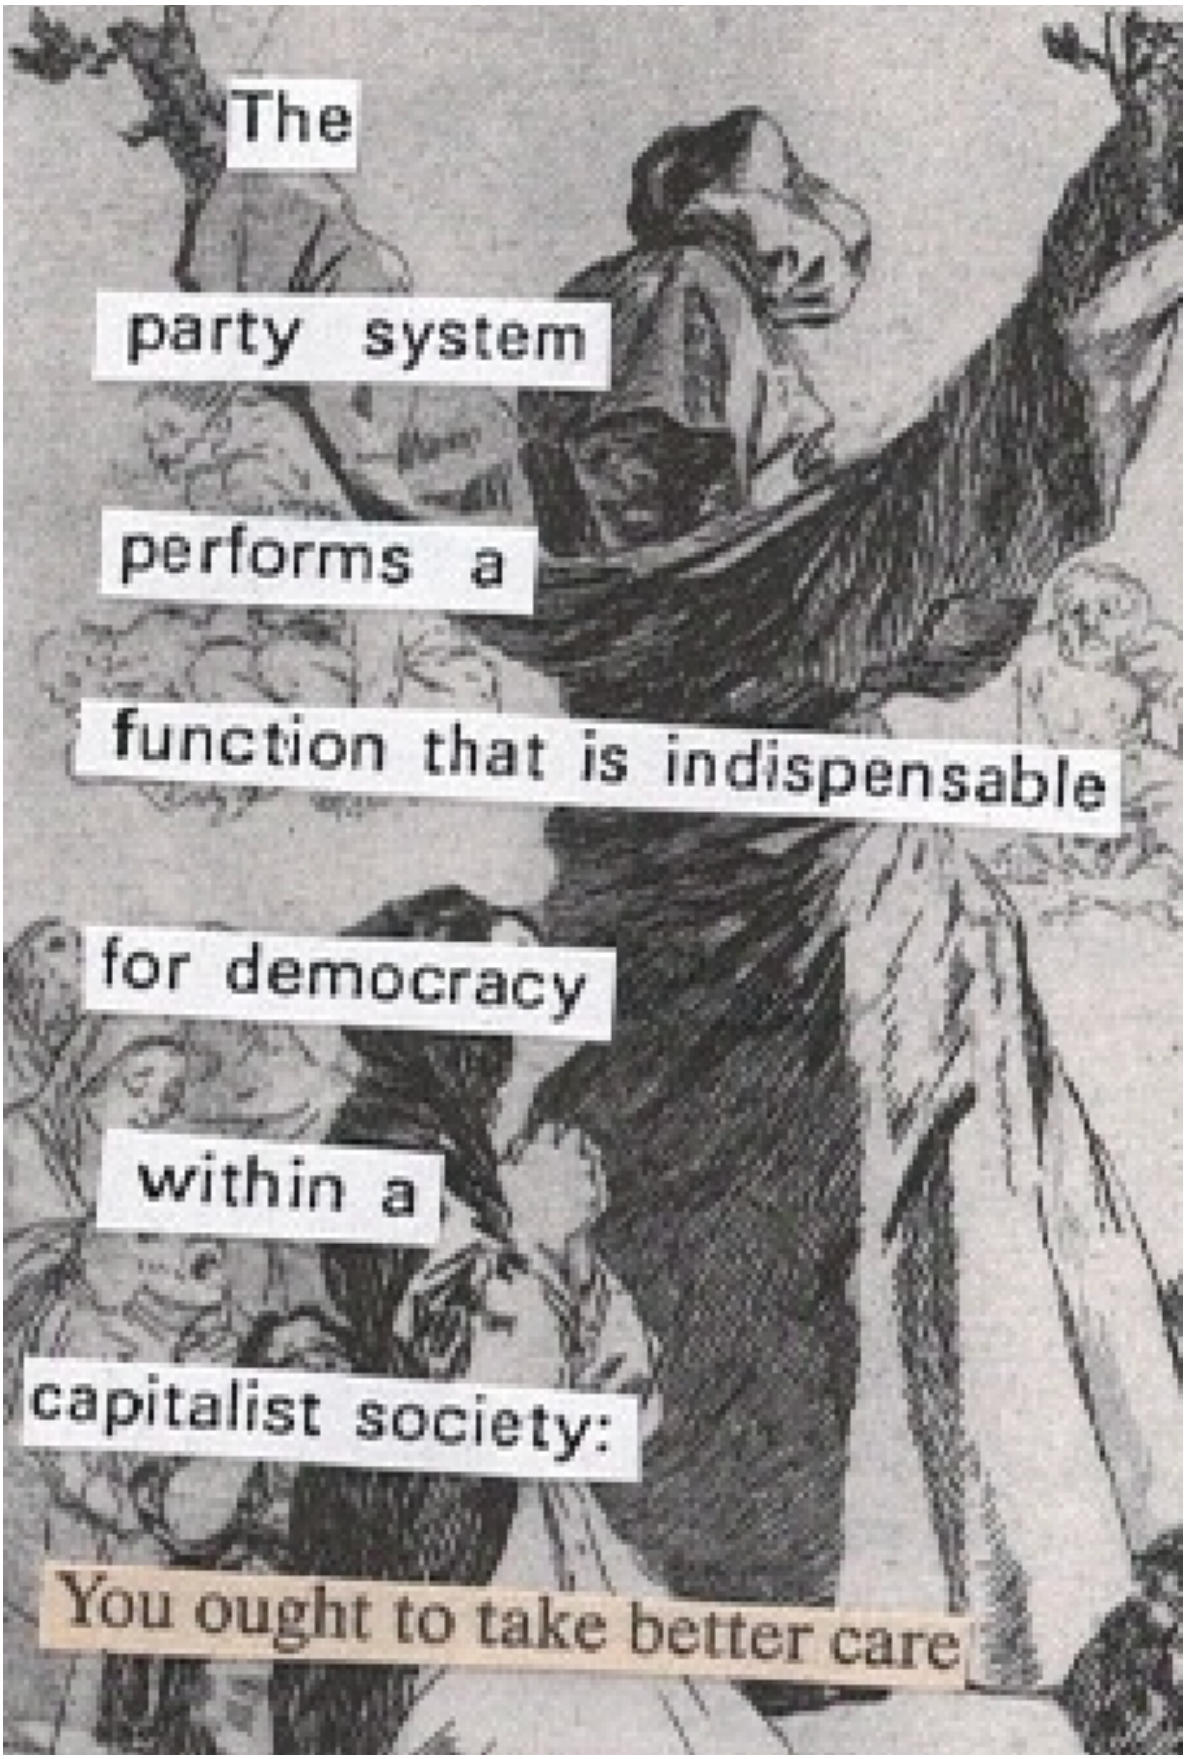
that is
We need people



The
party system

within a

You ought to take better care the frenzy for money marked Western civilization government

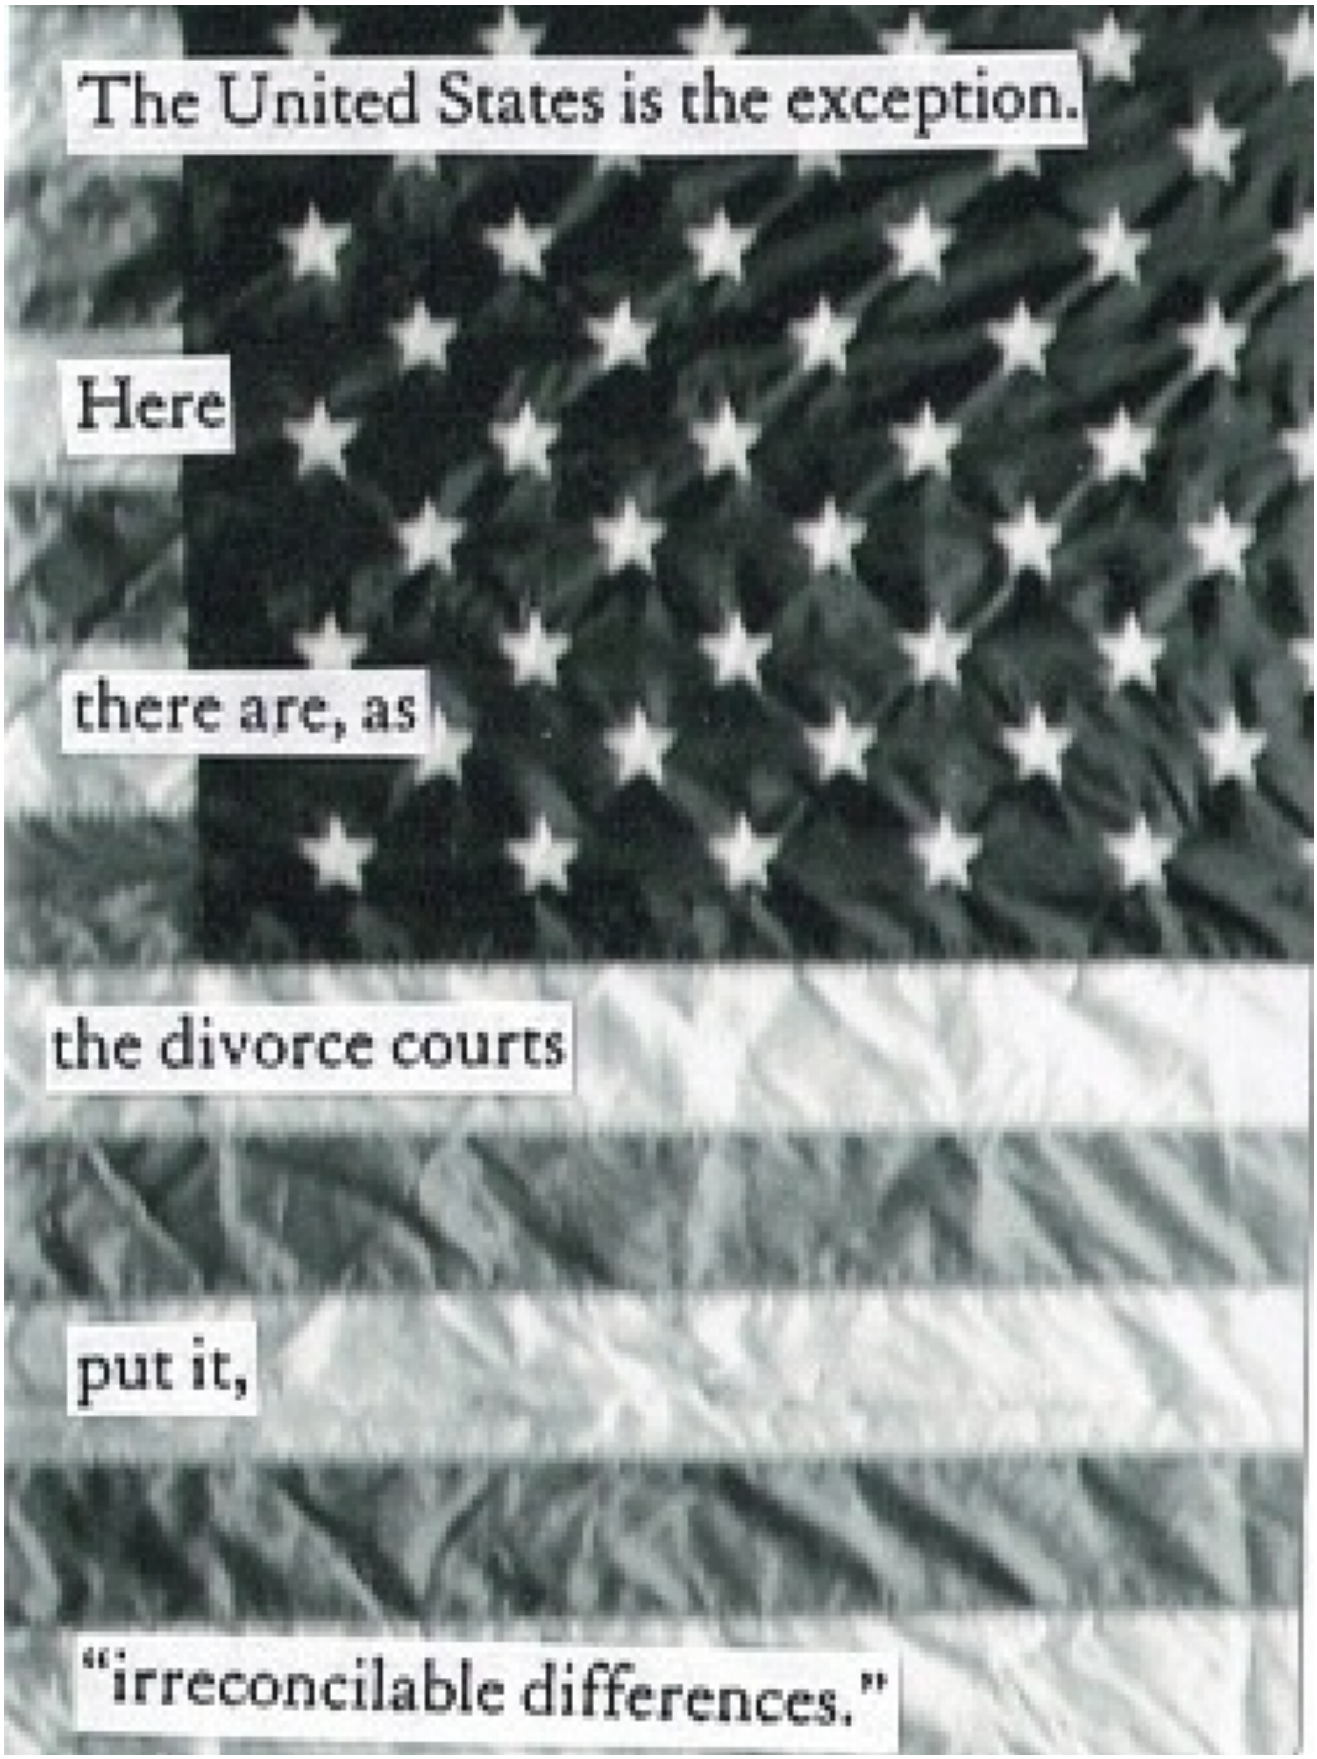
religion
make them do whatever we want.
to save Western civilization;



The United States is the exception.
Here
there are, as
the divorce courts
put it,
"irreconcilable differences."

Nothing
in our lives
came easy.
the fact is, it is DANGEROUS
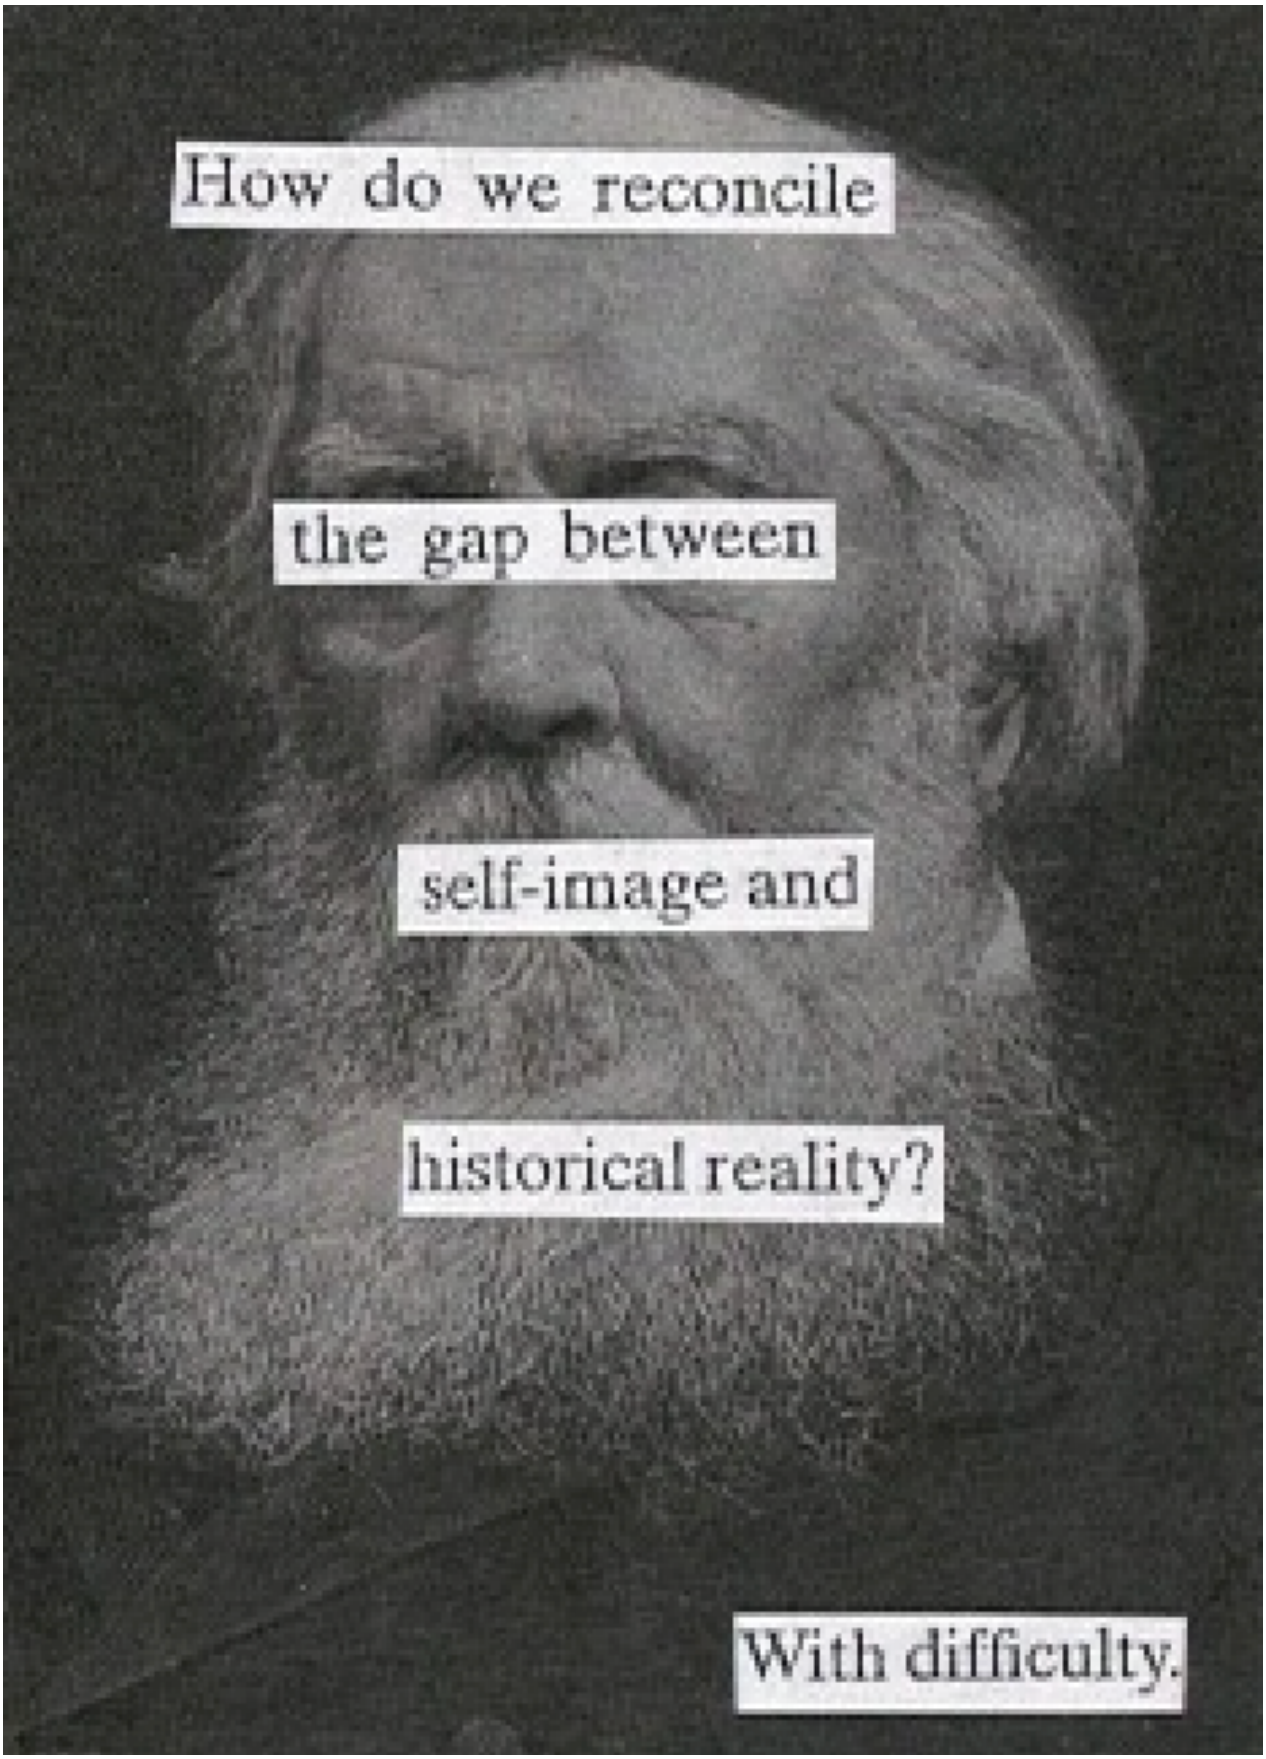
Trying to pry
away
community



How do we reconcile
the gap between self-image and historical reality?
With difficulty.

Barn's burnt down
Now
I can see the moon
